Ashland Citizen: The salt industry of Kansas is becoming an important one, and one whose magnitude is little thought of. It beats the sorghum sugar business all to pieces. In the year 1886, the year of pisces. In the year 1886, the year of our sleeping accommodations, while traveling, these cars cannot be exrels produced. A Hiswatha man who moved to Kirksville, Mo., some years ago, and who is back on a visit, says: "I would rather raise corn in Brown county at 15 cents a bushel than in any Missouri county at 30, because I can raise more than twice the amount." And then the air and society in Kansas are always so

The quarterly crop report of the state agriculteral society has just been issued and makes a handsome showing for Kansas. Last year's winter wheat crop is valued at $19-842,573,77, the corn crop at $51,649-, 876,10 and the oat crop at $7,654,812 .-73. The total value of all agricultural products in 1889 is estimated to be $104,572,498.

Secretary Mohler, of the Agricultural Department, says that reports received from all sections of the state show that the winter wheat crep is in splendid condition, and that never before has the outlook for an enormous crop been more flattering than at present. He estimates the acreage at about 20 per cent, greater than last year. Barring unforeseen misfortune the secretary says the grop will amount to 45,000,000 bushels.

E. N. Gardley, a grocer of Leavenworth, met with a singular accident. He was taking some barrels of salt into a cellar under his store by rolling them down a steep flight of stairs, going down backwards in songs of the robins in their yards front of them. His jaw bone was almost torn from his face, and he was hurt internal, from the effects of which he can not recover.

On Kansas day the Harrison school at Topeka raised a mammoth flag on a pele erected in the school yard. The rope had as many cords attached as there were children and each helped to float the flag. Rev. Mr. McKeriban's little son returned home all angle exclaiming: "We raised, mamma; we raised her, and I pulled one of the strings, and she's got forty-two stars on her. You don't know what they mean, do you? They mean ferty-two states

When spring came there were 300 men, women and children, with but three horses to the party. The colonists dug up the ed with hoes and mattocks, and when the grain was grown pulled it with their hands for want of even sickles. > tates .- Noble Printice. The Iola Register thinks that while this immigration work promses the quickest returns, there are a good many other things we might turn our attention to, both in our collective and in our individual capacity. Collectively, it is time we were beginning to realize that com-munities as well as individuals may buy too many whistles and pay too much for them. A great many of our public investments have doubtless paid well, and were wisely made. But too many Kansas communities have been in the habit of voting bonds to tie a tin can to the tail of every stray dog that came around. It furnishes a little diversion and excitement at the time, doubtless, but when the day of reckoning comes there is nothing to laugh about. The Register continue

> Individually, it is time we were getting our business down to business principles. Not in farming alone, but in every other business we have acted long enough on the theory that all Kansas needed to laugh with a harvest was to tickle with a hoe. It was pleasing faney, but it hasn't panned out as a cold fact. Business success in Kansas means what business success elsewhere means, and that is prudence. economy, good management and hard work. We should be satisfied with the happy assurance that the converse of this proposition is also true, that prudence, economy, good management and hard work always mean business success in Kansas.

Jany, 17, 1890.

Aday of Jany, 1980, a petition signed by baniel Kreps and is others, was presented to the board of county commissioners of the county and state aforesaid, praying for the vacation and relocation of a certain road, described as follows, viz:

Commencing on the section line between sections 8 and 16, township 12, range 4 west of the 6th p. m., about 80 rods west of the northeast corner of said section 18 and thence running southwest at the foot of a hill and thence northwest at the foot of a northwest at the foot of an hill and thence northwest at the foot of said hill to running southwest at the foot of a hill and thence northwest at the foot of said hill to section line, between said sections 9 and 18 to avoid a hill on the section line.

The round to be located is on the section line between sections 9 And 16 running duly north of the proposed location.

Whereupon, said board of county commissioners appointed the following named persons, viz. Jas. H. Thompson, 8. Fraser and David Reed as viewers, with instructions to meet, in connection with the country survey. gentlemen. At night, by means of sliding head boards and heavy damask curtains, as much privacy is secured as if in the regular first-class sleeper. Plenty of fresh, clean towels and a good supply of water are also to be found. A uniformed porter accompanies each car to look after the comfort and attend to the wants of the passengers, and no smoking is allowed. It certainly seems that for cheap and commodious sleeping accommodations, while traveling, these cars cannot be excelled.

Distribution.

The "Boys and Girls of America," and adults as well, who have read the instructive pages of "Wait-Stephen" (1880), "Voltagal, (1880), and "Iron and Steet," (1880), will be pleased to know that the intest and brightest of the famous Rock Island Rock, "Sunsine and Moonlight," (1889), now confidently awaits the chorus of approval which welcomed its predecessors.

"A Man" invites the attention of his inquisitive boy and girl visitors this year, to wonders in the heavens above, revealed by the telescope. He tells them about the sun, moon, planets, satellites, fixed stars, cometa, and their movements, and explains the laws by which they are you rised, The achievements of science in the field of astronomical research are presented in language so clease as to be easily understood by all readers. The book fascinates, while it elevates and improves.

"Sunshipe and Moonlight" comprises 128. orado, With View of Pike's Peak A very costly and elegant steel plate engraving has just been executed in the highest style of the srt. co des of which from a limited supply, are now ready for delivery, and will be sent to a sy part of the world on receipt of 20 cents each, in stamps or coin. The noble grandeur of the "Entrance" to the "tarden of the Gods" is the favorite theme of post and painter. The outer parapets are of pure white the interior columns spring bodily from the plain to the height of 200 feet—the whole suggesting the rmins of a wast framework for the show capped summit of Pike'st Peak which reveals itself among the clouds in the fair distance. To secure an early copy of this admirable work of art, address John Shanstian, Gen. Ta't & Pass. Agent, Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Ry., enclosing the price, 25 cents. The book fascinates, while it elevates and improves.

"Sunshine and Moonlight" comprises 129 pages, profus-ly illustrated with choice ongravings. Its covers are ornamented with appropriate designs, beautifully printed in colors. Practically, it is a Christmas gift to the patrons and friends of the Rock issland Rotter, and will be sent postpaid to any part of the world [as also previous issues, if desired) at the nominal price of ten cents per copy. Write your address plainly, and encione ten cents in stamps or coin, to John Senastian, G. T. & P. A., Chicago.
